This Friday marks the beginning of the Downside Retreat. Please pray for the success of these few days for all concerned.

Immaculate Conception

Wednesday 8th December is the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception. Mass will be celebrated at 7.30pm. After Mass there will be mince pies and mulled wine.

End of Term

The last Mass of this year will be on Wednesday 22nd December at 10.00am. The First Mass of the New Year 2011 will be on Sunday 9th January at 6.30pm.

House Keeping

Fr. Jones has been approached on a number of occasions recently with regard to students leaving food and dirty cups and plates around the Chaplaincy. Please give some thought to others who also wish to spend time at the Chaplaincy. Please leave things tidy.

High Street "Living Crib"

The Missionaries of Charity are holding a living crib in Queen's Street Cardiff on Saturday 11th December, 1.30- 4pm. Interested see Laurence Bryce. Also they are organising a Rosary procession to the Cathedral on Saturday 4th December leaving the Chaplaincy at 2pm.

Advent Reflection

Abbot Paul Stonham of Belmont Abbey, Hereford will give a talk on Advent this Tuesday at 7.30pm. Learning more about Advent and reflecting upon its significance is a good way to enter into the Advent Season and help in one's spiritual preparations for the Solemnity of Christmas. The talk will be in the Common Room.

"Walk With Me"

Once again the Archdiocese has beautifully produced a booklet of daily reflections for each day of Advent. The price is £1, but if as a student you genuinely can't afford that a donation of 50p will help Fr. Jones defray the cost to the Chaplaincy. We can become holy during Advent not by great jumps but rather by feeding our daily desire to know, love and serve God.

Inter-faith Week

I am most grateful to those students who assisted in the various events of the past week.
